know why her husband was interested in this other woman, who was so much more attractive than herself. But she had always shrank from gossip. And now she hesitated to put her question into words. However, Mrs. Stevens went on with promising to return to the city.

"You remember the other night at the dance how he spent the evening with Mrs. Kilne—and left his wife to take care of herself? Won't you keep her in our party so she won't get lonely?—and when she comes to herself and sees you, she'll thank herself and me."

Helen glanced over at the slim, downy figure in the hammock, and imagined him working away untroubled by his wife's fate, and then she turned away. "Was she thinking of that night, or of some other instance of mistaking woe?"

"The next day she slaved in her room all day long, and when she did come out her eyes were red and swollen, and it was only one of her bad headaches—but of course, we knew better. Such a proud little thing, that she's so much better than we are. She's afraid we'll sympathize with her."

All the time Mrs. Stevens had been talking of Mr. Prentice, Helen had

By Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Thousands of such letters as the above ought to give women confidence in the virtue of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. It certainly has done so for a world of good among the women of America.

Young Girls, Heed This Advice.

Girls who are troubled with painful or irregular periods, backache, head-ache, dragging-down sensations, fainting spells or indigestion, should take this safe action and be restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Thousands have been restored to health by its use.

Surely this is an honest, tried and true remedy.

NEW PLAYHOUSE SOON TO OPEN

Boston's newest playhouse, the Plymouth Theatre, is to be opened on the evening of September 22. The opening attraction will be the comedy of which will be the most successful of the season. The play is the result of the collaboration of Lister & Co. to have a playhouse in this city. The main entrance to the Plymouth is on the street, a few doors west of Tremont. The body of the new theatre lies in the rear of the structure, following the slope of the Magazine and across the street from the Colonial Theatre.
